

June 20, 2012 / LSG-NOM-JKL

ANNOUNCEMENT

Course VII on Exploration for Geothermal Resources

United Nations University Geothermal Training Programme (UNU-GTP) in Iceland, Geothermal Development Company, Kenya (GDC) and Kenya Electricity Generating Company, Ltd. (KenGen) will be hosting "Course VII on Exploration for Geothermal Resources", to be held at Lake Bogoria Hotel and at Sopa Lodge, Naivasha, Kenya, October 27 - November 18, 2012.

Preliminary programme outline:

- 27 Oct.- Nov. 2 - Arrival, Introduction & Geothermal Field Work, Lake Bogoria
- Saturday 3 Nov. - Sopa Lodge - Geothermal Energy and Geothermal Drilling
- Sunday 4 Nov. - Geothermal and Geological Mapping - Practical session
- Monday 5 Nov. - Geophysical Exploration
- Tuesday 6 Nov. - Geophysical Exploration
- Wednesday 7 Nov. - Geochemical Exploration
- Thursday 8 Nov. - Hydrogeology, Resource Assessm. & Well Logging - Pract. Ses.
- Friday 9 Nov. - EIA, Legal Requir., Env. Studies, & Linux - Free Mapp. Softw.
- Saturday 10 Nov. - Geothermal Power Plants, Direct Use - Practical session
- Sunday 11 Nov. - Visits to Geothermal Power Plants and Utilization Plants
- Mon/Tue 12/13 No.- Status of Geothermal Exploration in E-Africa - ARGeo
- Wednesday 14 No. - Planning and Costing Geothermal Projects & Case Examples
- Th-Sa 15-17 Nov. - Project Work
- Sunday 18 Nov. - Presentation of Projects, Discussion, Course Review & Closing Ceremony
- Monday 19 Nov. - Departure for home or for ARGeo C-4 Geothermal Conference

Participation in the course is by invitation only. The course is mainly aimed at young professionals from East Africa with a diploma or a degree in chemistry, physics, geology (Earth and Environmental sciences) or engineering, who have been actively involved in geothermal research in the home country or are potential candidates for it in the near future. Female participation is encouraged. Organization is in the hands of:

Ludvik S. Georgsson, Deputy Director, UNU-GTP (lsg@os.is)

Dr. Nicholas Mariita, Secretary (nmariita@kengen.co.ke) Tel: +254-723-297815.

John K. Lagat, Chairman (jlagat@gdc.co.ke), Tel: +254-721-857043

For further information please contact one of these.